who attended both performances say,
if anything, the second was better than the first. It is generally conceded

Right Kind of Music.

The music of the hammer and saw is heard on nearly every street and thoroughfare in Reno. More than a dozen new buildings are in course of erection, in addition to those already completed. There is also a great deal of improvement in the way of repairing going on, and the carpenters, masons, plasterers and paper hangers are as busy as politicians in a Nevada State convention.

The plaintiffs in the case of Inda vs. McInnis (the sheep license case) moved before Judge Outler yesterday to amend the complaint, which motion was granted. Judge Cheney took exceptions to the ruling, and asked for ten days in which to plead, which was also granted.
